SPRING 2022 OFFICE HOURS
ALL face-to-face Office Hours are held in Room 125H.
Zoom meetings available by appointment.

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday

Office hours will be conducted in my office (LC125H), as well as via ZOOM. Each meeting type has its advantages: Walk-in meetings are convenient in the moment if you are in the building and provide a face-to-face experience but may require social-distancing and masks for safety. ZOOM meetings require no physical contact while providing screen-sharing tools and can be recorded to review again later. If you would like to meet via ZOOM during office hours, please call 806-716-2178 for the ZOOM room to be opened.

Meetings are available to students on a first come-first served basis during scheduled office hours. The office hours schedule above shows the times I am available.

If you are unable to attend regularly scheduled office hours, please send me an email explaining your availability conflicts, and I will do my best to accommodate you. These are usually conducted via Zoom. Send me an email with your date and time preferences to schedule the meeting.

You may want to get contact info for a few of your classmates for future reference.

PREFERRED METHODS OF COMMUNICATION

Face-to-Face:

The best way to communicate with me is to raise your concerns during class. Often, students have the same or similar questions, and those issues are best addressed during our regularly scheduled class time. I will designate a time for questions during each class. You are encouraged to ask questions at that time.

However, if you have a concern that requires a more confidential setting (questions about grades or other more sensitive issues), you should plan to meet during scheduled office hours. Face-to-face communication, whether in person or online, is always the preferred mode of communication.

PLEASE NOTE: The 15 minutes between classes is my personal time. Even if I am at the podium in the classroom, this is not the time for student questions. Please ask during class or office hours.

Phone / Voicemail:

If you are calling with questions during scheduled office hours (and I am not already helping another student), a quick phone call can resolve many issues. My office phone number is 806-716-2178. Voicemail can also be very effective when used properly. If you must leave a voicemail, be sure to speak clearly. Leave your full name, course and section number, and clearly state what information you need from me.

Include your SPC email address so that I may reply via email if I cannot return your call. Remember that I cannot call you back unless I happen to be in my office; this means I will NOT be returning any calls after office hours or on weekends. Voicemail messages that do not provide complete information will not be answered, so be prepared before you place the call. Oftentimes, an email is a preferred way to document your concerns.

Email:

Email correspondence can be very effective when used properly. Please follow the proper format for business email correspondence (appropriate subject line, salutation, complete sentences in the body, closing, and signature). You can find a good description of the expectations for professional communication here:

How to Write a Professional Email.

Every email you send to me for this class MUST contain the course and section number for your class in the subject line; if this information is missing, the email will be returned to you, no exceptions. Emails sent through Blackboard email will automatically include the course and section number. Allow 1-2 business days for a reply. If you need to reach me right away, you may call or stop by my office during office hours, or talk to me during class. Do not use Blackboard Messages. I do not check it and I will not see the message.

IMPORTANT: Check your official SPC email (Outlook 365) regularly. All email correspondence from me will automatically be sent to your SPC email address. If you fail to check your email, you may miss important and often time-sensitive messages. If you have trouble with your email login, contact IT Support and get it fixed right away! This is your lifeline to the school!

REQUIRED MATERIALS

Textbook: Provided through TexBook (formerly Inclusive Access, see below for more information)

Wyrick: Steps to Writing Well with Additional Readings + MindTap

This course is in the SPC TexBook program, so you do not need to purchase a textbook or access code for this course.

- What is TexBook? The required textbook/digital content for this course is available to you in Blackboard from the first day of class. The charge for the textbook/digital content is the lowest price available from the publisher and bookstore and is included in your tuition.
- How do I access my TexBook? Your course material is in your Blackboard course from the first day of class. Access to your course material is provided either by VitalSource or other links inside your Blackboard course. VitalSource (and many publisher's) ebook features include the ability to hear the text read aloud, highlight, take notes, create flash cards, see word definitions, build study guides, print select pages, and download 100% of the book for offline access.
- Help with TexBook issues and support: check with your professor or visit: <https://support.vitalsource.com/hc/en-us/requests/new> (available 24/7 via chat, email, phone, and text)
- Opting out of TexBook: Participating in TexBook is not mandatory, and you can choose to opt out. However, by opting out you will lose access to the course textbook/digital content and competitive pricing, and you will need to purchase the required course material on your own. If you drop the class or opt-out before the opt-out deadline, the TexBook fee will be automatically refunded to your SPC account. The opt-out deadline for Fall and Spring is the twelfth class day. The opt-out deadline for shorter terms varies between the second and third class day.

Please consult with your professor before deciding to opt-out.* If you still feel that you should purchase the course textbook/materials on your own, send an opt-out email to tfewell4texasbookcompany@gmail.com. Include your first name, last name, student ID number, and the course you are opting out of. Once you have been opted-out, you will receive a confirmation email. If you need assistance with the process, contact the SPC Bookstore:

Email: tfewell@texasbook.com / Phone: 806-716-2399 / Levelland

Email: agamble@texasbook.com / Phone: 806-716-4610 / Reese

Blackboard and Internet Access:

Blackboard is a website host for our class, where you access the e-book & quizzes, view and access homework, view and print supplemental materials, turn in your assignments, check your grades, view the syllabus, and email me. Should it become necessary, you may also attend online-synchronous class meetings.

You should visit the Instructional Technology Help Page for many resources to help you familiarize yourself with Blackboard. If you experience technology issues with Blackboard, please visit the Blackboard Help Page and complete the form. For problems with your login or password, problems accessing your SPC email account or SPC network outages and even some computer problems, Information Services Help Desk at 806 716-2600.

While it may be helpful for me to know when you experience technology problems, I am not the person to contact to resolve those issues. You should attempt to resolve your issue by going through the proper channels before you email me. Merely emailing me to tell me you had technical issues is not sufficient and will not get you an extension on any assignment.

Computer with Reliable Internet Access:

You must have access to a computer with a reliable internet connection with sufficient bandwidth to accommodate the needs of this class. While some of your assignments can be completed using a smartphone, you will need access to a laptop or desktop computer for many of your most heavily weighted assignments. If you do not have a computer with reliable, high-bandwidth internet access, you must plan time into your weekly schedule to use the SPC computer labs on one of the campuses or find a computer with reliable internet access that you can use on a regular basis. This is required for the class.

You must also have access to a word processing program that you can use to produce essays and other assignments that adhere to our formatting requirements. I recommend that you use Microsoft Word, although you are free to use others. You will not be exempted from fulfilling the formatting requirements even if your chosen software or application makes formatting difficult. Some file types are not accepted through TurnItIn and Blackboard; you must produce work that can be uploaded and opened, or you will receive a zero.

Additional Supplies:

Blue/black ink pen, 1 inch three-ring binder or a folder (to keep course assignments and notes), notebook paper or a spiral notebook.

DELIVERY OF INSTRUCTION

Attendance is required and necessary for your success. This class requires attendance twice per week at the scheduled class time. You are committing to attend class for the duration of each class period each week. Do not schedule work, appointments, or other activities during class time if at all possible. When you miss class, you will be counted absent, which has a negative impact on your outcomes. You may also miss graded participation activities that cannot be made up. It is your responsibility to be present for scheduled classes.

This class is designed for face-to-face instruction, based upon the social distancing guidelines that are in place at the time of the class. This means that if guidelines change our face-to-face policy will adapt to conform to those guidelines.

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Read this policy carefully. If you do not understand any part of the policy, ask for clarification NOW.

Attendance will be taken for ALL students, regardless of registration date, beginning on the first scheduled day of class. Attendance in this class is required and necessary for your success. You are expected to arrive on time, ready to participate, and attend the whole scheduled session. Every class day, you will be counted as present, tardy, or absent.

PRESENT:

To be counted as present, you must be present in the classroom when class begins and roll is taken. Furthermore, you must attend the whole class session until class is dismissed.

TARDY:

Arriving late to the beginning of class and leaving class before dismissal can create a disruption for you and your classmates. If you arrive late or leave early, you will be counted tardy. If you arrive late and leave early, you will be counted absent.

ABSENT:

If you are not present for a regularly scheduled class, you will be marked absent. In addition, if you arrive late to class and leave early, you will be marked absent. Only absences related to school sponsored activities or qualified, documented accommodations are exempted from this policy. All other absences, even absences due to periodic illness or doctor's visits, count toward your absence totals.

SCHOOL-SPONSORED ACTIVITIES & DOCUMENTED ACCOMMODATIONS:

Students involved in school-sponsored activities must present documentation from the appropriate coach/sponsor before they are absent from class. Likewise, confirmation of documented accommodations must be presented, discussed, and arranged before a student is absent from class. At that time, students may arrange for completing any in-class assignments they may miss. If those assignments are not completed and submitted according to the arrangements OR if no arrangements are made in advance of the absence, all policies in the syllabus and due dates posted in Blackboard/MindTap will remain in effect.

NOTES, ANNOUNCEMENTS, & MISSED ACTIVITIES:

Because attendance for this class is required, you are responsible for all material presented or discussed during class—including changes to the schedule—even when you are absent or tardy. You must still turn in all in-class or online assignments by the posted due date, even when absent, unless prior arrangements have been made. Participation activities or quizzes that you miss due to being tardy or absent cannot be made up.

I do not answer emails about what you missed in class. Please refer to your notes, the Blackboard Weekly folders, and/or the course schedule for this information. I suggest that you exchange contact information with classmates in case you need information between classes. You are always welcome to meet with me during office hours (face-to-face or ZOOM) to discuss this information.

EXCESSIVE ABSENCES AND TARDIES:

This class is scheduled to meet 29 or 30 times (depending on holidays) during the semester. You should make every possible effort to attend every class. If you think that you might miss more than three classes, you may want to consider dropping this class. More than three absences are considered excessive. Attendance is required and necessary for your success in this class. Arriving late to class is also considered a partial absence. When evaluating your attendance, tardies are also considered.

While I may refer you for academic counseling if you accumulate excessive absences and tardies, I will not drop you from this course. If you quit coming to class, at the end of the semester you will be awarded the grade that you have earned—just like every other student—based upon the work you have submitted. If you quit attending class and are not planning to return, I suggest you drop yourself, which will result in a W on your records. Dropping will also remove you from the class roster, and you will no longer receive class emails.

NOTE: If circumstances, such as a documented family emergency, hospitalization, or an extended illness including COVID, make prolonged or excessive absences unavoidable, you should contact the Dean of Students (Dr. Lynn Cleavinger's office at 806-716-2380). They can help you request accommodations from your professors and connect you with resources that may help you through difficult times. Most importantly, communicate with me—in advance if possible—so that we can make suitable arrangements for turning in your work. If no arrangements are made, all policies in the syllabus and due dates posted in Blackboard/MindTap will remain in effect.

ENGL1301 COURSE EVALUATION

LOW STAKES WRITING ASSIGNMENTS: 20% Total
Four writing assignment each worth 5% of the overall grade.

HIGH STAKES WRITING ASSIGNMENTS: 45% Total
Three writing assignments each worth 15% of the overall grade.

ATTENDANCE, HOMEWORK, QUIZZES, PARTICIPATION, & EXAMS

Attendance	7%
Online Reading Quizzes in MindTap	7%
JustInTime+ exercises in Mindtap	7%
Participation Assignments	7%
Final Exam Essay	7%

Writing Assignments – Low and High Stakes

As you can see, the majority of your grade depends on successful completion of your writing assignments. Your writing assignments should be your number one priority in this class, as you cannot pass the class if you fail to complete and turn in your writing assignments.

Attendance

Your attendance is tracked in Blackboard and converted into an average of your total time spent in class based on whether you are present, tardy, or absent. Attendance policies are described below. The average calculated by Blackboard will count as 7% of your overall grade.

Online Homework – MindTap

Most of your weekly readings and homework assignments will be accessed through Blackboard in the MindTap interface. There are many resources for you in MindTap. Readings and reading quizzes & activities must be completed by the due date in the schedule (and in MindTap). Reading quizzes and Just In Time Plus (JIT+) quizzes will always be due on Friday before 11:59pm of the week assigned unless otherwise noted.

MindTap must be accessed on the internet. If you do not have a computer at home with reliable internet access, you will need to make plans to use one of the computer labs on campus, in the Technology Center or in one of the libraries to complete your online homework.

Participation – In-Class & Online Activities

The participation grade will be based on in-class and online activities related to your writing assignments. For example, I may ask you to bring a deliverable product to class, usually part of the writing assignment that you are working on, for group discussion and feedback. Depending on the completeness of the work you produce and the quality of your participation, you will receive a 95, 75, 55, or 0 for most assignments.

LATE WORK

I do not accept late assignments except in very rare situations; therefore, if you forget to do an assignment, do not send me an email asking if you can make it up. However, there is a built-in grace period for some assignments, with a late penalty. To be successful in college, you must turn your work in on time.

Low & High Stakes Writing: These are heavily weighted assignments, accounting for 65% of your overall grade, so MindTap is set up to accept late submissions. Late submissions will receive a 10-point deduction for each day late that they are received up to five days late. After five days, you will receive a zero for the assignment. There is no guarantee that you will receive credit for work beyond the 5-day grace period; nevertheless, you should always submit your work as soon as possible, as there is no chance for receiving credit when nothing is turned in.

Online Homework: There is a 5-day grace period for the online MindTap reading quizzes and JIT+ quizzes. Late submissions will receive a 20% penalty. However, I will drop your two (2) lowest online reading quiz grades and two (2) lowest JIT+ quiz grades at the end of the semester. These accommodations are designed to give grace for an occasional missed assignment.

Participation: There is no grace period for participation assignments. You cannot make up missed participation grades and late work will not be accepted. However, I will drop your two (2) lowest participation grades at the end of the semester. This accommodation is designed to give grace for an occasional missed assignment.

NOTE: Some assignments (Feedback Fruits Peer Review and Discussions, for example) depend upon timely submissions and interaction with your peers. Due to the nature of these assignments, it is imperative that you turn in your work on time or you may not be able to complete the assignment. There will be no extensions or accommodations for late work for these assignments. You need to complete these tasks as assigned.

There will be no “extra credit” work available at the end of the semester. You earn your grade by the quality of work assigned during the semester that you turn in on time.

GRADING POLICY

Your grades and course average will be continuously available for you to view in our Blackboard course. Grades will be updated every couple of weeks. Check your grades regularly. Your final grade will be based upon the earned average at semester's end, with no rounding up of grades.

Grades are assigned according to this scale:

- A Excellent work that exceeds expectations; 90% to 100% on graded work.
- B Very good work that is above average; 80% to 89% on graded work.
- C Average work that meets the basic goals of the assignment; 70% to 79% on graded work.
- D Below average work that is deficient in one or more area; 60% to 69% on graded work.
- F Unsatisfactory work that does not meet the minimum expectations of the assignment, work that is incomplete or does not follow the assignment instructions, work that is found to have been plagiarized; 0 to 59% on graded work.

Essay Assessment Guidelines:

The "A" essay	is perfectly formatted, with few to no spelling, wrong word and/or grammatical errors. It also has an excellent title, strong thesis, excellent organizational strategies, good transitions, an introduction with a hook, a thoughtful conclusion, and well-supported main points in the body paragraphs. The writing is lively and intelligent; there are no sentence structure errors.
The "B" essay	at the 1301 level contains all of the above with one or two more errors.
The "C" essay	has a thesis, introduction, and conclusion, but may lack support and/or has other obvious errors.
The "D" essay	contains one or more of the following problems: lack of a clear thesis, lack of a strong organizational pattern, weak introduction and/or conclusion, formatting errors, multiple spelling and grammatical errors, and/or sentence structure issues (fragments and run-ons).
The "F" essay	does not meet the minimum expectations for a 1301-level essay assignment. Some examples of "F" essays are 1) those written on a topic that has not been approved; 2) those that do not meet the minimum word count; or 3) those that are not written in the required format.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

Academic dishonesty will not be tolerated (see General Catalog, 23). You are expected to do your own work on all submitted assignments. "Offering the work of another as one's own, without proper acknowledgment, is plagiarism" and will not be tolerated (General Catalog, 23). Submitting portions of or complete papers copied from the internet is plagiarism. Paraphrasing without attribution is plagiarism. Allowing someone else to write any portion of your assignment is plagiarism. Submitting a paper that you wrote for another class is self-plagiarism. Copying someone else's work or answers on homework, quizzes, or tests is cheating. There may be other forms of plagiarism and academic dishonesty not specifically named here.

I REPORT ALL INSTANCES OF PLAGIARISM, CHEATING, AND OTHER FORMS OF ACADEMIC DISHONESTY TO THE DEAN OF STUDENTS' OFFICE. This report will become part of your permanent academic record. Depending on the nature and the severity of the incident, a student who cheats or plagiarizes may receive penalties ranging from a zero for the assignment to an "F" in the course. Extreme cases may result in disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from South Plains College.

COVID EXPOSURE & ILLNESS PROCEURES

Consistent with the latest CDC recommendations, SPC has revised our guidance for students, faculty, and staff who have a known exposure or have tested positive.

If you are ill with COVID symptoms, please do not come to class and take a COVID test at your earliest opportunity. Positive results should be reported to DeEtte Edens, BSN, RN, Associate Director of Health & Wellness, at dedens@southplainscollege.edu or 806-716-2376.

Also, please immediately notify your instructor if you test positive for COVID-19.

Anyone with a known exposure should wear a mask for 10 days and should seek a COVID-19 test on day five after exposure. If you develop symptoms, you should immediately self-isolate and seek a COVID-19 test.

Anyone who tests positive is required to self-isolate for five days. Following the five-day isolation period, if you are asymptomatic or your symptoms are resolving, you may return to work or class but should wear a mask for five additional days.

If you are still symptomatic after five days, please contact DeEtte Edens, BSN, RN, Associate Director of Health & Wellness, at dedens@southplainscollege.edu or 806-716-2376.

We ask that everyone continue to practice regular hand washing, cover coughs and sneezes, and distance when they are able. We also strongly recommend vaccinations and face coverings to increase personal protection.

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT POLICY

Any successful learning experience requires mutual respect on the part of the student and the instructor. Neither instructor nor student should be subject to others' behavior that is rude, disruptive, intimidating, aggressive, or demeaning. Student conduct that disrupts the learning process or is deemed disrespectful or threatening shall not be tolerated and may lead to disciplinary action and/or removal from class.

“Failure to comply with the lawful direction of a classroom teacher relative to maintaining good order is considered misconduct on the part of the student. Repeated violations of disrupting a class will result in the student being dropped from the course” (South Plains College Student Guide).

HEALTH AND WELLNESS

Any student needing individual counseling for issues such as depression, anxiety, adjustment to college, stress management, and substance abuse may visit the Health and Wellness Center to chat, confidentially, with licensed mental health professionals who provide services free of charge to current SPC students. Call or visit on Levelland Campus 806-716-2529 from 8:00 am – 4:00 pm. Students wanting to set up a counseling session will have an option to be seen face-to-face on any campus or via teleconference.

Any student in need of food or other essentials may visit the food pantry. Students can contact Dee Dee Odorizzi (806-716-2236) for more information.
