Online Course Format

This course is an online asynchronous course, meaning you work at your own pace within the given deadlines.

- Students are expected to attend classes online by logging into Blackboard and completing class assignments, quizzes, and exams before the given deadlines.
- If the student does not communicate with the professor or login to Blackboard for 3 consecutive weeks, the student risks being dropped from the course.

Grading Standards

Assignments

- Written assignments should be submitted via Blackboard. Students will need access to a printer and scanner.
- Uploaded pictures of written assignments will be accepted ONLY if the picture is high quality and all notation is legible.
- Assignments must be completed in PENCIL.
- Any assignment submitted with unreadable manuscript will be returned to the student to be completed again.
- Late assignments will not be accepted.
- The single lowest assignment grade will be dropped when figuring the student's average at the end of the semester.

Assignment Deductions

- 5 for assignments completed in PEN

Quizzes

- Quizzes will be administered online via Blackboard.
- Quizzes must be completed before the given deadline.

Exams

- Exams will be administered online via Blackboard and will contain written and online portions.
- There will be three exams scheduled during the semester, and a comprehensive final exam at the end of the semester.
- Exams may not be taken late or early except in the case of a legitimate emergency. The instructor must be notified in advance and for which documentation is provided upon the student's return to class.
- Both written and online portions of the exam must be submitted before the exam deadline via Blackboard.
- The final exam will follow the same format of the three previous exams and will be taken at the time specified in the college finals schedule. Under no circumstances will any student be allowed to take the final exam early.

Grade Book

The course grade book is maintained at <https://southplainscollege.blackboard.com/webapps/login/>. Class assignments will also be posted to Blackboard. You are encouraged to log in regularly, to keep track of your personal records. If you have questions about using this website, please do not hesitate to ask the instructor. Tutoring is provided for this course. Please listen to announcements given in class regarding tutoring, and please do not hesitate to ask the instructor for further information.

Final Grade Calculation

The Final grade will be calculated as follows:

Written assignments 30%
Three regular exams 40%
Final Exam 20%
Quizzes 10%

The Final Grade will be determined as follows:

90-100% = A
80-89% = B
70-79% = C
60-69% = D
59% and under = F

For Fine Arts Music Majors

Although the grade of a “D” is considered passing, it is highly recommended that the student earns a grade of at least a “C” to show competency in the subject before moving on to the next level of Music Theory. Students who earn a “D” will be encouraged to retake the course.

Covid-19 Statement

It is the policy of South Plains College for the Fall 2020 semester that as a condition of on-campus enrollment, all students are required to engage in safe behaviors to avoid the spread of COVID-19 in the SPC community. Such behaviors specifically include the requirement that all students properly wear CDC-compliant face coverings while in SPC buildings including in classrooms, labs, hallways, and restrooms. Failure to comply with this policy may result in dismissal from the current class session. If the student refuses to leave the classroom or lab after being dismissed, the student may be referred to the Dean of Students on the Levelland campus or the Dean/Director of external centers for Student Code of Conduct Violation.

Plagiarism and Cheating

Students are expected to do their own work on all projects, quizzes, assignments, examinations, and papers. Failure to comply with this policy will result in an F for the assignment and can result in an F for the course if circumstances warrant.

Plagiarism violations include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Discovering the content of an examination before it is given;
- Using an unauthorized source of information (notes, textbook, text messaging, internet, apps) during an examination, quiz, or homework assignment;
- Entering an office or building to obtain unfair advantage;
- Taking an examination for another;
- Altering grade records;
- Copying another’s work during an examination or on a homework assignment;

- Rewriting another student's work in Peer Editing so that the writing is no longer the original student's;
- Taking pictures of a test, test answers, or someone else's paper.

Student Code of Conduct Policy

Any successful learning experience requires mutual respect on the part of the student and the instructor. Neither instructor nor student should be subject to others' behavior that is rude, disruptive, intimidating, aggressive, or demeaning. Student conduct that disrupts the learning process or is deemed disrespectful or threatening shall not be tolerated and may lead to disciplinary action and/or removal from class.

Diversity Statement

In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.

Disability Statement

Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric, or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Disability Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Disability Services Office.
