COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course presents fundamental concepts of tort and personal injury law including intentional torts, negligence, and strict liability are presented with emphasis on the paralegal's role in tort and personal injury law.

COURSE OBJECTIVES: This course explores the sources and context of law governing torts and personal injury. The student will review the laws concerning intentional torts, negligence, and strict liability. Students will also prepare legal documents commonly used in personal injury cases. Students successfully completing this course will understand the sources of tort law and the paralegal's role in personal injury cases; be familiar with the rules and principles governing tort law in Texas; and develop skills to prepare documents commonly used in personal injury litigation.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK: Tort Law for Paralegals (6th ed.), Author: Bevens, Neal R.; ISBN: 978-1-454896227

GRADING: One examination (final exam) will be given during the semester and will count 25% of the final grade. Weekly class assignments (number determined by professor) will count 75% of the final grade. No make-up examinations will be given. Grade equivalents: 90 to 100% = A; 80 to 89% = B; 70 to 79% = C; 60 to 69% = D; Below 60% = F.

ASSIGNMENTS: Assignments will only be accepted through Blackboard. Late assignments will NOT be accepted. Students must maintain academic integrity in all assignments – “copying and pasting” from other sources (e.g. the Internet, other students, etc.) is plagiarism and will be grounds for dismissal from the course. Where it is apparent students have submitted substantially identical answers, those students will not receive credit for those answers.

COMPUTERS: Paralegal Studies students have access to computers in the computer lab located in LC109. Lab computers are for course-related work only. All student work on SPC computers must be saved on a removable storage device, e.g. a flash drive.

Student-Owned Computer Equipment: Students may choose to use their own computer equipment to complete the assigned coursework. SPC provides Microsoft Office to students for installation and use on their personal computers. It is the sole responsibility of the student to ensure his / her computer system meets the minimum requirements for all required or suggested software. It is also the sole responsibility of the student to insure his / her computer system is in working order, free of malware, and sufficient to complete assigned coursework. The instructor is not responsible for the student's computer maintenance and cannot troubleshoot or repair issues on student-owned computers. If the student needs computer assistance, he/she can contact the SPC student helpdesk.

NOTICE TO STUDENTS: In this class, the teacher will establish and support an environment that values and nurtures individual and group differences and encourages engagement and interaction. Understanding and respecting multiple experiences and perspectives will serve to challenge and stimulate all of us to learn about others, about the larger world and about ourselves. By promoting diversity and intellectual exchange, we will not only mirror society as it is, but also model society as it should and can be.
